Description of the Event / Activity –
The NSS Cell of Bengal College of Engineering and Technology (BCET), Durgapur organized a Food Distribution Program for Orphans on 22 January 2026 in collaboration with Mother Teresa Christian Missionaries as part of its commitment to social service and community welfare. The programme was conducted with the objective of extending care, compassion, and support to orphaned children while promoting humanitarian values among students. A total of 47 students and NSS volunteers actively participated in the programme. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers, faculty members, and representatives of Mother Teresa Christian Missionaries. Proper planning and coordination were undertaken to ensure the smooth execution of the programme and the effective distribution of food among the beneficiaries. The volunteers actively contributed their time and efforts in organizing the event and interacting with the children. During the programme, nutritious food packets and refreshments were distributed among the orphaned children. The volunteers personally served the meals and spent quality time with the children, creating a warm, friendly, and joyful environment. In addition to food distribution, the programme emphasized emotional support, encouragement, and companionship, helping the children feel valued and cared for.

The collaboration with Mother Teresa Christian Missionaries played a crucial role in identifying the beneficiaries and ensuring the successful implementation of the activity. The joint initiative demonstrated the importance of cooperation between educational institutions and social organizations in addressing community needs and promoting humanitarian service.

The programme provided students with an opportunity to understand the challenges faced by underprivileged and orphaned children. Through direct interaction with the beneficiaries, the volunteers developed a deeper sense of empathy, kindness, and social commitment. The experience encouraged them to appreciate the importance of community service and inspired them to contribute positively to society beyond their academic responsibilities.

The activity was highly appreciated by both the participants and the beneficiaries. The happiness and enthusiasm displayed by the children created a memorable experience for the volunteers and reinforced the values of compassion, humanity, and social responsibility.
