Objective: The basketball match organized between Lionesses and Falcons (Girls Team) was planned with the following key objectives in mind: 1. To actively encourage greater participation of female students in organized sporting activities and to help establish basketball as a viable and welcomed avenue for physical activity among women on campus. 2. To help young women players build essential on-court competencies including game awareness, coordinated movement, clear communication, and confident collaborative play as part of a team unit. 3. To promote discipline, punctuality, and respect for the rules of the game among participating players, while reinforcing a culture of sportsmanship that challenges traditional gender-based assumptions around women’s participation in competitive sport. 4. To provide a genuine competitive institutional platform where female students could showcase their basketball abilities with confidence, contributing to greater visibility and recognition for women’s sports within the institution. 5. To cultivate an encouraging, inclusive sporting environment that promotes healthy competition among women players and strengthens interaction and camaraderie among female students across the campus.

Outcome: The basketball match between Lionesses and Falcons achieved the following meaningful outcomes:

- Active Participation: The match generated strong enthusiasm among female students, contributing to a visible rise in interest towards women's basketball and encouraging several participants to consider continued involvement in the sport.
- Better Coordination: The team-based format gave players practical experience in communication, passing accuracy, positional awareness, and coordinated play, helping them function more effectively as a cohesive unit on court.
- Competitive Learning: Players gained valuable experience navigating the pressures of organized competition while adhering to the rules of the game and maintaining a respectful, sporting attitude towards their opponents.
- Skill Exposure: The match offered a useful platform to observe individual playing abilities among the female participants and to identify students who displayed notable promise and potential for further development in basketball.
- Positive Campus Interaction: The event brought together female students, their peers, and faculty members around a shared sporting occasion, contributing to a supportive and energetic campus environment that celebrated women's participation in sport.

Description of the Event / Activity -

A basketball match between the Lionesses and Falcons Girls Teams was organized by Storm Breakers at the basketball court of Bengal College of Engineering and Technology, as part of the institution's extra-curricular sports calendar for the 2023-24 academic session. The event was conceived to provide female students with a genuine opportunity to participate in competitive basketball while developing teamwork, game discipline, coordination, and sportsmanship. Both teams played with notable enthusiasm and maintained a competitive spirit throughout the match, showcasing skilful ball movement, determined defensive effort, and a strong sense of team unity. The fixture gave the participating students valuable exposure to organized basketball and encouraged them to continue developing their sporting abilities, while also contributing to the broader visibility of women's sports within the institution.

- The participating teams played in a structured, officiated format under the close supervision of appointed referees, ensuring fair and consistent adjudication throughout the match.
- The game placed strong emphasis on teamwork, coordination, rule compliance, and fair competition among the participating players.
- Faculty members and student volunteers actively supported the organization and ensured the smooth conduct of the event.
- Students and faculty members turned out in good numbers to watch the match, cheering on and encouraging the participating players.
- The event concluded with faculty coordinators appreciating the efforts, sportsmanship, and enthusiasm displayed by both participating teams.
