Objective: As part of the institution's ongoing sports calendar for the 2025-26 academic session, a 20-over knockout cricket tournament between Malakal 11, Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj 11, Ramji 11 and Jay Bhavani was organized by Storm Breakers around the following objectives: 1. To provide male students an organized, competitive platform to showcase and further develop their cricketing skills as part of the extra-curricular sports programme. 2. To help participants sharpen core cricketing skills, including batting technique and shot execution, line-and-length bowling, clean fielding, and quick running between the wickets. 3. To strengthen players' understanding of the tactical elements of cricket, such as field placement, bowling changes, and batting order, encouraging more informed in-match decision-making. 4. To cultivate patience, composure, and disciplined temperament among players, given the longer and more situational nature of cricket compared to faster team sports. 5. To promote team spirit, healthy competition, and sportsmanship among students across departments and academic years.

Outcome: The 20-over knockout cricket tournament between Malakal 11, Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj 11, Ramji 11 and Jay Bhavani produced the following outcomes:

- Competitive Spirit: The knockout format brought out strong competitive intent across all four teams, with players displaying determination and a clear will to advance to the next round.
- Skill Demonstration: Participants displayed solid batting technique, disciplined bowling spells, and alert fielding, reflecting the benefit of regular practice sessions.
- Tactical Growth: Players applied in-match strategy effectively, including field adjustments and bowling changes, showing a maturing understanding of the tactical side of cricket.
- Improved Temperament: The extended format of the game required players to stay patient and composed across overs, helping them develop the mental discipline that distinguishes cricket from shorter, faster-paced sports.
- Team Bonding: The tournament strengthened camaraderie among teammates and fostered healthy rivalry across the four sides, adding to the vibrancy of the sports calendar.

Description of the Event / Activity -.

As part of the extra-curricular sports calendar for the 2025-26 academic session, a 20-over knockout cricket tournament featuring four teams – Malakal 11, Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj 11, Ramji 11 and Jay Bhavani – was organized by Storm Breaker at the cricket ground of Bengal College of Engineering and Technology. The event was planned to give male students a competitive, elimination-format platform to apply and build on their cricketing skills while encouraging healthy inter-team rivalry, with each match carrying the added intensity of a single loss ending a team's run in the tournament. The fixtures saw competitive batting performances, disciplined bowling spells, and alert fielding across the overs, with momentum shifting between teams as the matches progressed and players applying tactical inputs such as field adjustments and bowling changes.

- Each knockout match was played over 20 overs per side, officiated by appointed umpires who ensured fair play throughout the tournament.
- Scorers maintained a ball-by-ball record of each innings, keeping players and spectators updated on the state of every match.
- Faculty members and student volunteers assisted with pitch preparation, equipment arrangement, and the overall coordination of the fixture.
- A good number of students and faculty gathered to watch the fixtures, cheering enthusiastically for their favoured teams throughout the tournament.
- The tournament concluded with the announcement of the winning team, followed by faculty coordinators appreciating the competitive spirit, discipline, and sportsmanship shown by all four teams.
